ACADEMY HERALD

Our Respects to John Provencher

John Provencher brought happiness to the lives of the students at Gould Academy. The Senior class would like to remember John's laughter, jokes, and ability to remind us that we need to take life less seriously. He had the capacity to make us smile when we were frowning and to realize that each day we have is a gift. Thank you, John, you are always in our hearts.

Madame, vous êtes notre est la lumière de shinging dans une brume brumeuse. Vous êtes spécial sous tous les rapports et nous ne vous oublierons jamais. Nous vous aimons.

Dedication

Tineke Ouwinga, so commonly known as "Madame" is one of Gould's most dedicated women. This multilingual woman brings a smile to everyone's face either while reminiscing about her brother's abduction by the helper of Sinter Clause or telling you over her glasses that you're out of dress code for the millionth time this week. We have been blessed in being able to experience Madame. She is caring, funny and always has a wise crack even if it is sometimes in broken English. Torturing her advisees, gossiping with her French 4 class, or crooning over Jaques Brel are some of her favorite past times. She is devoted to "her kids" and it is a treat to know her, she will stay in our hearts always.

Appreciation

This year's yearbook appreciation is awarded to Gould's dynamic duo, the Batman and Robin of morning assembly: Mr. Tom Zicarelli and Mr. Jim McLaughlin.

The contributions these two make to our community are everywhere, as if everywhere they go they skip a rock on the pond that is Gould Academy, and the ripples are felt in small amounts on even the far shore. If you've ever been into the computer room at Gould, you might have noticed the various pin-ups of not-so-normal news briefs, "Crododile Rescues Baby from Drowning" is one of them. These are Mr. Zicarelli's work. Also, if you'd seen any musical performance at an assembly this year, the odds are that Mr. Mcglaughlin had something to do with it. Yet, these two heroes go unsung and work behind the curtains in the shadows and trenches of the Gould Academy Music/Computer industry. It is a dirty job, but these two pull it off with refinement and grace unlike anything the faculty and student body has seen before.

To Mr. Z we owe to you some confusion. Your comments such as, "Hey, do you want to see me put a string through my neck?", left us in hysterics. Or, when a student asked for help coming up with a topic for an argumentative essay, he answered, "I think you should write about how all gas station attendants should be required to wear antlers." This kind of advice may not have been meant to be taken seriously, but it has meaning to it, in a deep, Z-man kind of way. You give the students different ways to perceive reality, and bring us closer to enlightenment with every smile. Yet, all the while you somehow get our computers back to us before we can remember we have dropped them off to be fixed.

The second half the duo is Mr. McLaughlin. If you don't know him from going to chorus or one of the numerous other musical groups he keeps in top form all over campus, it could also be from the announcements he seems to make daily to get more people to join chorus ("We need GUYS!"). His music classes more than doubled in size after the first trimester, and anyone who attended knows that it was well worth the time spent just for the experience of being around such an animated and light hearted character. Mr. McLaughlin bears the gift of quick thinking and you saved many teachers from babbling on about their trucks during morning assembly.

Together these two exciting characters made the silver linings in our lives gold. From playing music to playing cool these two guys hit the nail on the head. We will never forget the many laughs, styles, and noises you have made.

Thanks. Bang.

When this you see, remember me,
and bear me in your mind,
let all the world say what they may,
speak of me as you find.

Wall of Pictures

This wall of pictures that lies before me,
Is my life laid out. Everyone I've met, lives I've known So clear to me when I look It is always a reminder of the past which I miss so much. Stories to tell bad and good My experiences have been many They set the stages of history Things have changed since these still shots of the mind were produced
All people I miss,
No matter who they were A wish of a wonderful future
I leave with you I will not put these memories behind they are my soul As love itself they grow from a small seed to a garden full
These will be carried with me, even in my trip to the land I must travel next
May sweetness always be with you, everyone I love you all so much

Sarah – truly you are beautiful, in all aspects of life.
I'll love you forever. Maybe someday Riley will get her wish. I know it's always been mine. The best of days, and the worst of them as well, have all been shared with you. I can't thank you enough. I'll miss your smile the most. Good bye. Gus – you are the puppy, and Lynch – I pass you my polyester, so dance on, you sexy thing.

– Pooh promise you'll never forget me, ever.
Not even when I'm a hundred.
– Pooh thought a moment
– How old will I be then?
– Ninety-nine
– Pooh nodded
– I promise he said
– Still with his eyes on the world, Christopher Robin put out a hand and felt for Pooh's paw. He laughed and jumped to his feet. – Come on – Where? Asked Pooh – Anywhere said Christopher – And they went off together, but wherever they go, and whatever happens to them along the way, in that enchanted place, in the forest they will forever play.

Geoff Hayward

Momma and Dadda – You have financially supported me my entire life, and won't forget when I assume dictatorship over the world.
Andrew – Freestyle walking is not a crime. We will always have networking and Kellet and the broom closet. Chris – If you ever feel like changing, don't; and when you get to college and you meet your roommate for the first time, don't let "Do you steal?" be the first words out of your mouth. That thoroughly freaked me out for a good two months till I realized you weren't serious. Orlin – Discos really aren't my style, but I do enjoy those laser shows. Rick – Oh my God that's just too funny. Macko – You are probably the only guy I'll ever meet who I will be able to identify by his a** alone.
Hopefully it never comes down to that anyway though. Sarah –
You suck at bingo. Lewis, Waitkun and the rest of the FGU Crew – Word up! Ring the bell! Tate – I still believe that I can blow smoke out my eyes, and one day, I will prove it to you, while simultaneously kicking it down and holding the wheel as we drive to Puerto Rico to get the best pottery EVER. Tristan – Q: What time is it? A: GAMETIME! Marty – If you keep doin' it for the nookie, there's no possible way the man can get you down. Rory – "Turbo pimp" isn't quite the phrase I was looking for even though that's what you wanted me to write. Perhaps "caveman-looking wack job" would be a more accurate description. Bora – In the future, when you are a Turkish rock star, don't forget to remember the little people, such as myself. Brent – In the first three months of school we survived the '99 disco and Camp Winona. God help us for the spring.

Laura Jenks

Mom and Dad

thank you for your patience when I pushed you away. For the pain I have caused you, I am sorry. Please try to conceive that no matter how backward my actions may seem, they are formed simply by my love for you. You have sacrificed yourselves for me and for that I am eternally grateful. The core of my heart is where you will remain forever.

Adam

You know as well as anyone that life is a never-ending war. No wars are won by an individual. I will fight with you for eternity!

To my friends who complete me

May Gods blessings keep you always, may your wishes all come true. May you always do for others and let others do for you. May you build a ladder to the stars and climb on every rung, and may you stay forever young.

May you grow up to be righteous,

May you grow up to be true.

May you always know the truth and see the light surrounding you.

May you always be courageous; stand up bright and be strong, and may you stay forever young.

May your hands always be busy,

May your feet always be swift.

May you have a strong foundation when the winds of change shift. May your heart always be joyful. May your song always be sung, and may you stay forever young.

- Bob Dylan

Houston Dupré

Ooooooh ... Big senior yearbook quotes. For 4 years I've thought of thousands of things to say in my senior yearbook quotes, and I can't remember a single one right now. Who should I include? Who should I insult? Which quotes should I use? I'm just gonna start this thing, and hope I don't leave anyone out.

Mom, Dad, Angele, Trey, Celia, and the entire Dupré clan: Thank you all for your support throughout this high school mess, I couldn't have survived without it, I love you guys. Family down, friends to go ...

Brad: These three years were fun as hell, ups and downs. Kick life in the ass, and never forget the subterranean mole man. Nick: "Nick Rumble fore ... nah, I wouldn't do that. You've been a good friend, and I mean that ... thanks. Adaminicus: (yes Adam, that's you) OOOOOOOOOOOO SOMETHING BIT ME!!!!!! Gleason: "Shower long, and prosper" Chase: no more sugar, and wait, what's that over there? ICED, ok ill shut up now. Kellett: "I call on you my brothers, for the wisdom that you have learned." Carter: KEO!!! Lucci: I'll see YOU later tonight big boy. - and of course saving the best for last - Natalie: Excuse me for getting sappy but, I LOVE YOU!!! And I'm gonna miss you so much ... Of all the things I would like to say right now, ill leave it at that. To my Queen (yes Betsy, that's you): I could write a book for you, but ill keep this as short as I can; you've been nothing less than the best friend I've ever had, you are the purest and nicest person I have ever met, and I love you soooooooo much. Don't think for a second that I won't see you again after high school.

- All you guys have been awesome, and each one of you saved my life in some way ... Ill miss you guys, but I won't miss Gould, which brings me to my next point: Gould Academy has done great things for me, but in the three years that I've been here it has changed from the school I loved to the school I loved to leave. Peace out to all my teachers and SEE YA GOULD (famous yearbook quote line). Oh yeah ... a big shout out to anyone I meet after I write these quotes. One last thing ... YOUR MOM!!!!!!

"Happiness? It is an illusion to think that more comfort means more happiness. Happiness comes of the capacity to feel deeply, to enjoy simply, to think freely, to risk life, to be needed." – Storm Jameson

"I believe that only one person in a thousand knows the trick of really living in the present. Most of us spend 59 minutes an hour living in the past, with regret for lost joys, or shame for things badly done (both utterly useless and weakening) – or in a future that we either long for or dread. Yet the past is gone beyond a prayer, and every minute you spend in the vain effort to anticipate the future is a moment lost. There is only one world, the world pressing against you this minute. There is only one minute in which you are alive, this minute – here and now. The only way to live is by accepting each minute as an unrepeatable miracle. Which is exactly what it is – a miracle, and unrepeatable." – Storm Jameson

"Life beats down and crushes the soul and art reminds you that you have one." – Stella Adler

"We must learn to reawaken and keep ourselves awake, not by mechanical aids, but by an infinite expectation of the dawn." – Thoreau

Mom, Dad, and Hilary: It is hard to articulate 18 years of gratitude, but at the same time it is so important to do so. You are my motivation, my inspiration, and my support. I love you.

Mom, I never would have made it without you. Thank you for always listening. You are such a wonderful artist. I love you Mommy. Daddy, Thank you so much helping me right from the beginning and ... for driving me back from vacation when I wanted to stay just one more day. I love flying with you. Madame, I'm so glad you were my advisor. I enjoy your porch and crêpes! My favorite 4 Pt. was going to Germany with you. Vielen Danke.

Chelsea, two years of our friendship has meant so much. Thank you so much for the weekends at your house too! Good luck and I know you will go far in whatever you choose to do. Reid, here we are 4 year seniors. We went through 7 days in the winter woods and eating rösti in Germany. I'll miss you. My Ali, remember our cheese fondue at mother's. I love listening to you sing and I'll miss you next year. Emily, I was so happy freshmen year to have a dancing friend and it's lasted four years. Keep it up Cinderella. Megatron, it always made me so happy when you visited my room in the alley and being on field hockey with you this year. Tiger, it was a good thing that I met you the first day I came to Gould. I don't know, but maybe someday I'll make it inland. Jed, can you believe we are finished with Gould? I'm going to read your Santa story every Christmas! Nina and Connie, I'm so glad we met so we could be such great friends my last year. Café di Cocoa was the best. Rosa, even though I moved away 4 year ago we've gotten so close. Since we were six years old we've had many great memories and I'm sure more to come.

Ms. Pooley – You were always ready with a helping hand and a kick in the pants, as I remember it seemed to be more of the latter. Thanks. Nell – You were the first friend I ever made at Gould, and probably the best I'll miss you. Sarah & Emily CR was unforgettable, maybe we'll do it again some time. Elizabeth, Erica & Tim – It's all up to you now X-C is your show! I know you'll do great! Jon – we suffered through Law & Society together "What doesn't kill you will make you stronger" right? Marty – You are something amazing I hope that you never lose your strength of character. Chelsey – Thanks for being study buddy during free dot. Jack – Don't worry someday you will find the woman of your dreams, and yes Jack she'll be wearing carhartts. Bob & Tristan – Keep the sauna going, it's a great place to hang and it's the last place that the faculty haven't gotten to yet. Sarah Reed – Thanks for being a good friend, watch out for yourself. So this is it, four years and now it's all over. I'm not so arrogant to think that my being here has dramatically changed any of your lives in any way. But I would like to think that while I was here, maybe I made life a little more interesting.

Float away here with me an evening just wait and see.

So here we are tonight, you and me together the storm outside, the fire is bright and in your eyes I see what's on my mind. – DMB

Mom and Dad, I can't possibly ever express how much I love you and appreciate all the support and everything else you've given to me; especially this opportunity. This last year of my life has taught me something very special, a key to good life. No matter how bad life can be at times, No matter how much trouble you can POSSABLY get in, things will get better eventually. My advice is stay out New England's Police logs and away from crime. - Take the high road. Special Thanks to Jeff Yingligng and Mr. Bean for being such good inspirations, teachers, coaches, and friends. Eric: We sure did it, all four years. All the memories of both the good times and the bad, which in four years we will look back on and laugh. Let it stand BBB ... Oh Yea, Dam those girls are weird!!! Megan and Lydia: Thank you for taking care of me these past five years in Maine. I know we've been through a lot and had our differences at times. You girls are some of the best friends I've ever had. I'll always love you girls. Ali: You know what it means when I swipe my finger across my head. Eddy, PD, whose your nanny, and the rest of my younger G's - JUNK, YEEEEAAAAANNNN.

Josh Ferguson

Wow! The time is already here! Mom and Dad, thank you for all you have done for me. I know it was rough, but we made it, and it could not have happened without your support. Also, Grandma and Harvey, thanks for the love you showed, it will be with me forever. To the rest of my family, I warn you to stay awake because crazy old Josh is almost in the real world with you. My roommate who shared the first two WAWAWAWAWA's weeks with me deserves a pat on the back. If he was not around, helping me study, my brain would have gone to complete mush this year. Colin, I love you. Balloons for everyone!! I would also like to throw down a phat 25 for the man last year who taught me not to disrespect authority. Although it took forever, I am happy to say that my high school years are over, and will never, ever be redone. I was glad to spend some good times in such a beautiful place, but will be even happier to leave. To the rest of my friends, be safe, smart, and don't do anything I wouldn't do. In addition to the above, I would like to say hello to my youngest brother, Kevin, who truly thinks Maine is the place to be. Adam, I don't know how you were able to do what you did, and what I did with such skill; I must have more to learn from you. Cameron, I am watching you carefully, take advantage of our great parents because although they suck sometimes, they are right and you are not. End this off with a little Mystical "AM turns to PM, and night time turns back to day." And some DMX kid - "If you love something, let it go, if it comes back to you it's yours, if it doesn't, it never was" "Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good night"

To anyone who takes the time to read this, I hope you understand Dr. Clarke, Mrs. Clarke, Jed, Aiden & Caleb – Thank you. I love you. The bond I feel with you will cross any distance. Your lives are full of more love, caring and selflessness than I ever thought obtainable. I am so content being a part of it. Mr. Janicki – Your friendship has helped me through many a funk. Thank you for trusting me, sharing with me and listening to me. I have never met anyone so caring, generous and thoughtful. Thank you for that. Don't get stuck. To My Friends – You are the most amazingly beautiful people I have ever known. It is a truly blissful experience to have you in my life. I am honored by your friendship and humbled by your capacity to love, listen and dream. Dad, Mom, Hannah, Josh, Martha & Seth – You are the coolest people I know and you are my best friends. I can't wait to see what we become. Word to the squinty eyed island clan. To Gould – It's been a long four years and I forget what it's like to be out there. I am learning to appreciate all I've experienced and learned here. Thank you to the faculty for setting a standard that will never be matched. Juliana – I am sorry. Thank you for teaching me about friendship. Peter – Olive juice, see you in the morning, I love you, good night.

This is for all those that I love:
Old friends, Sat on their park bench like bookends
Winter companions, the old men
Lost in their overcoats, waiting for the sun
The sounds of the city sifting through trees,
Settles like dust on the shoulders of the Old Friends

Can you imagine us years from today
Sharing a park bench, quietly
How terribly strange to be seventy

Old Friends, memory brushes the same years
Silently sharing the same fears

Time it was, oh what a time it was a time of innocence, a time of confidences
Long ago it must be, I have a photograph
Preserve your memories, they're all that's left – S & G

There is too much stuff to list in this tiny little 350 words or less space provided in the yearbook and I feel like I am on the wonderyears everytime I attempt to fill this with something profound.

so here is my attempt at a Cliché free year book Quote. I never thought I would meet so many people I truly cared about in four years. I guess I didn't really realize that my time here was limited until people started asking me to write stuff like this. While I am very ready to move on, it troubles me to think that never again shall our friendships be in the same capacity as they are now. I really had a good time and hope we somehow bump into one another now and again. To the Clarke family, the impact you have had on my life is immeasurable, your infinite kindness and support is something I hope I am at some point able to pass on. To my Mom and Dad, thank you for giving me this opportunity despite the fact that it took me five years. Molly, Olive Juice Never Shall I forget the days we spent together, continue to be my friend as you will always find me yours.

Not all who wander are lost.

Mom & Dad – Thanks for giving me the opportunity to go Gould. It's a lot better than staying at Telstar and rotting.

Mr. Wight – You're not always the easiest person to talk to, but when I need someone to listen you're there. Thanks for making me stay in soccer.

E.J. – Everything that I know not to do, I have learned from you. I will be able to kick your butt some day. I'm not your punching bag. I will get back at you, for hanging me from that beam in my room. My car has a bigger engine and NO YOU CAN'T DRIVE IT! I told you not to bring the potato guns to school. "SLOW DOWN" and if I were you, go to bed at 9:00 on a Saturday it won't hurt you.

Andre – STOP LENDING MONEY TO E.J. You know you will never see it again. Don't forget that your car is not invisible to cops, you should know that by now.

Jon Strazza, Shon Flaherty, Stephan Ford – To the Gould Alumni that have taught me everything about snowboarding, and a little bit more.

Nate Fisher – "FISH NUTS WHATS UP" what it comes down to is that Ordway Hall is a pretty cool building after all, and we rule at physics.

P.D. – Subaru's are good cars, but nothing beats a Jeep.

Brooksie – Its pretty lame around here without you, see you soon in college.

Jackie p. – Have fun in college, I'll see you around in the near future.

Ronan D. – Give it a good 45 Minutes, you'll love it. I guarantee it.

Eric H. – The rate you've been going, you won't have to worry about gas money until your married.

Marty O – Once we open the big M.O pickle CO, well have the money to open our own ski resort. No Joey's allowed.

Ellie S. – I told you so.

Alex S. – Sorry for all those times I called your roommate, and woke you up.

Alex G. – You have made my life at Gould great. I wouldn't change it for anything "Except a new car" Joking. Stop worrying about college, you'll do fine. Who knows what the future will bring, we'll have to wait and see. There is so much more to say in such the small amount of room given. If I have learnt one thing from you, it's that, there are other things in this world than cars, and I should break out of my shell and see them. I will never forget you and the fun we have had together. See you when I'm 28.

Jaclyn Paaso

Mom and Dad – Believe it or not I do appreciate everything you both have done for me. Love you. Thanks. Mark – I'll try to miss you. Dawn – I'll see you out west sooner or later. My favorite sister. Justin H. had any JUNIOR MINTS lately? Eric H. – Kitchens wish came true! Too bad it was only for one night. Maybe the next time it'll be better. Talia – you've always been someone I admired. Laura – Thanks for always being there for me. Kyle – keep in touch, my favorite Porky Girl. Trevor – I hope will run into each other later on in life. Tristan – "Two thumbs up!" Eddie – will you marry me? Monaco – If you ask me now I'll go down to play ping pong. Coach – Thanks for every thing. Marty – I knew you liked me then! See you on the team. Adora – my favorite girl! Erik's too! Forest and Tim – I can't believe you guys hang out with Mark! Katie D. – "on the line," Kate W. – team Walking Wounded. Betsey – Tube Tops! Cheney – Too bad you had your hat on. Pat D. you'll be the man next year. Erik – I wonder how long I'll be in Arkansas for? Do you? Liz B. remember this? "I wish that you could live for two hundred years, and I one day less so that I may never know that beautiful people like you are gone." – unknown

I'll start off by thanking the most important and caring people in my life, my parents. I can never thank you enough for your support and unwillingness to ever give up on me. Mom and Dad you're the reason for any success I have in the future, without you I wouldn't be anywhere near where I am today.

Alexa: You're the best, never give up on yourself, and definitely don't do what I did, it makes things a lot harder.

Josh: "I'll clean it during my free dot, I swear." Is drooling on yourself a bad sign? I couldn't have survived this year with anyone else as my roommate, thanks for EVERYTHING.

Murds: Thanks for everything you shared with me in the past years, there are great places, don't ya think? We had some great times together, and I promise I'll pay you that 40 bucks.

Dustin: Show this school what's up next year, and keep the BLT alive. I promise I'll visit next year.

Hanian: "I believe you, I know you can rally!!!!!!"

Kent: A little word of lifetime advice, a dark basement is not a bathroom.

Paul: You'll be glad to know that next year there is no proctored.

Lindsey: You allowed me to keep my sanity, when I returned for my senior year, I can't thank you enough.

Lydia: It's nice to see you're out of the zone this year. Remember rolling right through english class.

Ally: I hope you still have that.

Bill: Thanx for helping with my sleeping disorder.

Bowen: PHISH, and Berkshire, whaaat????

MAX: Where's the package you promised?

Jamie: Senior year isn't the same without you. Is that gum stuck to your boxers?

Dr. Clarke: Thank you for being the best teacher I've ever had during my time at Gould. You helped me realize my potential, and gave me new confidence in myself.

I would also like to thank all those blue dudes, without your help I could never have made it.

To all my friends at Gould, I'll see you guys later.

It is hard to believe that I have been walking these halls for four years now. Each day passing peers, teammates, coaches, teachers, staff, and friends. The presence of these faces have become so familiar, so cheerful, so much like home, that it is hard to imagine that they will all be gone tomorrow. One day has blended into the next, one week into the next, and finally one year into the next; And now it has all come to an end. Many of you have made a difference in my four years here at Gould and I wish I could thank all of you.

To Mr. and Mrs. Manning: You have seen me at the worst of times and the best; times of success and failure; Your Guidance has made my past two years at Gould great, Thanks! To all of the upcoming seniors in our advisee group: cut them some slack, and remember when it comes to assembly "Better Late Than Never." To Doc O: "Vale! Your knowledge has made me more aware of the world of yesterday and today. To Ms. Shifrin: A lot has changed since freshman English, but so have I. "Many receive advice, few profit from it." Your advice has brought my writing, as well as me, to a new level. Thanks. To Mr. Kucinkas: Class was always fun! Thank you for your inspiration, I know College will be a blast. To Dr. Clarke and Mr. Whittington: You have pushed me to my limits only to watch me excel to a higher level and come away with a feeling of success.

Forest Fyrberg

Here are some quotes from various people that do a good job representing my years here at Gould. "Pleasantly tiered" R.T. "You ready to ride?" J.Y. "What do you think Forest?" A.T. "If you only knew." M.P. "Hey Forest wait up." M.O. "You think way too much." M.P. and here are some of my favorite quotes. "In wildness is the preservation of the world" H.D. Thoreau. Summa Celerity, Half Fast. Not really quotes but whatever. "Vir sapit qui pauca loquiter." anonymous. Just think of me and you will get it, maybe. What doesn't kill you makes you stronger. Right? Remarks to: Mark: You didn't do anything wrong until you got caught. Jackie: You need to stop using boys, as much fun as it may be. You are really good, for a girl. Tim: I don't know where to start but I know where to end, stay away from big cars, Porsches are small for a reason. Justin: you should have stuck with Mountain Biking. Marty: I never told you this because I didn't want you to get a fat head but, but around the time you read this you will need it. You're the most driven person I know and because of that you will probably be the most successful. Sorry this is probably as embarrassing as being kissed by Jackie at age ten but I did it anyway. Mom & Dad: I am who I am mostly because of you. Gram's: Thanks for everything especially dinner. It's been fun, It's been Interesting, It's been done!

For three years, I have called this place home. But now, it's time to leave home. And even though I thought I hated it everyday, I'm sure I will miss it.

"Soon, you miss the pain. You miss it because you lived with it for so long." - Swingers.

But, life will carry on, with or without me. And I don't know about you but I intend to be with life. But, I am going to leave some advice for the people here. First off, remember that things that happen at Gould are mostly inconsequential in the big picture. You are left with only yourself once you leave the Gould community. No matter how popular you were, no matter how well you could ride, skate, or ski, no matter how smart you were, no matter how well you could dance, sing, or act, you are left with only yourself after you leave.

I can remember walking home from elementary school, day dreaming about my high school graduation and wondering who I was going to be then. I pictured myself being free ~ from all things that tie people down. I always saw myself on the go ~ and here I am, heading towards my future faster than ever. My parents have always taught me that there are two roads that one can take during their lifetime ~ I took the hard road, which in the end will make all the difference in my quest to find my true self. In my 18 years of life I have never stopped moving, I have met people from all over ~ from Mechanicsburg J.H. to Trinity to Hell (a.k.a. Hyde) and finally Gould. There are those of you that stick out in my heart ~ I often taste the tears that are shed in my memory of you. ~ Lydia, I love you. Our laughter's and memories are unforgettable ~ remember Melstock, and to being the angels of the night ~ I find a lot of you, in me ~ I will never forget our late night weekend chats, filled with truth and love, ~ love yeah babe ~ Call me ~ Meghan, you are my blood, remember its thicker than water, I love you ~ Megan, ~ Hold on We're Poopin ~ Your creativeness always helped me get away ~ maybe we will one day have that talk ~ love yeah babe ... ~ Eric, What can I say we have been through it all ~ I know that we will have many great times in the future, love yeah. ~ To being Saucy ~ To being Fired Up! ~ To the Crazy night on the Mountain! ~ To all the songs and all the rhymes, for every cheerz' and all the #@*&! (years?) ~ Eliza, I miss you. ~ Capasso, I hope to find you later in life and go for a hike. ~ Jeremy, I love yeah like a brotha ~ To Murdie I will always be here ~ Eddie and Lindsey, to all of you that are here next year, keep it real. I know you will. I love you all.

And to my parents who raised me, you have given me more than a lifetime of thankyou's ~ I am strong, I am you. ~ I will love you through every stage in life. Remember that ~ I love you.

In my three years at Gould Academy I've experienced a few bad times and a few good times. I've rolled with the blows and delt out a few myself. For everyone your all great and I hope you lead prosperous fruitful lives.

My former room mates - Macko, it was a real treat to live with you, just try to keep your man-hood in your pants in the future.

- Schmidt - you know you don't always lie all the time but you sure do try. Never forget the p bust by Mr. Small

- Tristan, even though you're from Mass. you're all right, don't change a thing except don't be so damn nice all the time.

- Carter, we were definitely opposites but we looked past our differences and made out with a pretty good year, even if you are from the south and believe that Macs' are superior to anything else. - Paul, we were never too close but in Bond you'll always be the J--. - Geoffrey, it hasn't been a full year yet and it hasn't been bad so far. I guess all I have to say to you is that if you want me to I'll tell Caroline myself I will.

- Mrs. Gardner, you've been a great advisor I just hope Douggie and Abby don't destroy you.

I don't think I'm above anyone contrary to what some may think, I'm just very quiet and shy. For the record, what is wrong with being a skier jock? To any one I didn't give a shout out to sorry but, I am not a man of many words. My last sentences are dedicated to my father who has busted his butt and mine to make these past four years happen for me, both at CVA and Gould. For this I am eternally grateful even if I don't show it.

I'll leave you with Jimmy Buffett, "Scales and clocks just can't be trusted - Keys and locks are destined to be busted - Metaphors were never made for keepin' score - And I'm feelin' for the sound of time." Only time will tell

With a little luck I made it through the three years here at Gould, I had a bunch of rough times and twice as many good times. I need to thank my parents for supporting me, and I made it that's all I need to say! To all the boys still here, just make it. Monaco living with was an adventure and it could have been a lot worse, and watch out for the flying squares, emails, and panda bears. Good luck at college, and when you are a famous writer give me a call. Geoff "What is the hardest thing at this school?" What about breakfast? The next time you and your band is on a world tour give me a call, I will be with you anytime, and when you go into your coaches office we know the view never changes. Macko - the blue pants you have are so sexy but are a bit small, at least that is what Patty and everyone else on the stairs said. Living with you?? Lets just say it is defiantly different. Remember "I'm still not a player I just $@#$ a lot" Big Pun. Jack, you tell the boys to put out enough some day they will!! You know what they say about guys with big trucks, they have ... you decide. Laura the VW camper is ready to roll just hop on and "you want that for here or to go?? For here!! Ohhhhhh &$#% I mean for here." EVERYONE NOW DO THE GOFUR. Magen hey keep practicing with the jelly and I will cheek up on you later. Betsey you bring the twister board and your welcome at any time. There is always room for jello!! Meg, the End you know what I'm talking about. The chair ride there and back made that night. You want to play a little game it is called find the ???? AKA DBUDDY. Lynch the goal post will always win. "Put in a prison cell, but one time he could have been the champion of the world!!" Bob Dylan, I survived the Gould Disco 1999.

Mom and Dad: Thanks for everything. The support, the love. Thanks for the repairs you made when I started breaking down. I made it. Jeremy: By know you are applying. I can only wish the best and hope you know how much I look up to you. Hillary: My favorite dumpling. We are two of a kind, inseparable. I love you so much. Keegan: what were we thinking, Parent's weekend?? Keep in touch. Talia: you're a cutie, hope things last with Nate. Pat: studmuffin, too bad Utah didn't work out. Andrew: drum dogg, nak-pushups?? Living with Chris?? Nate: HICK - hicks got nothing on pretty boys. Geoff: AHHHH, rolling, New Years, Mr. Comedian. Ali: Sorry about Junior year, but glad things got straitened out. Mendell?? Juliana: After the Gould Disco '99 you know me too well, Casa de Java, Jimmy Cox, brown house, and //" you know what I'm saying" - mmm nope sorry// have all shaped our lives and created what we love and hate. Sorry that things don't always fall your way. Murdock: Best year of my life but don't know why?? Chris: Two yuppies sitting in a tree. Well I won't continue. Never met anyone who looked so good naked, besides myself of course. Love ya honey. Emily: You define the word sweetheart. Orlin: Short stuff, how's it hanging, wait - I already know. Living with you - ideas of girls, all-nighters, and pimpin' the pad filled our heads. We will keep in touch on the outside. Jodi: boy crazy! My butt! Love ya Peter: SP worried me but things worked out. Thanks Strong: Why things couldn't be I still wonder. # Women's Varsity Soccer

Women's Varsity soccer had an exceptional season. Our record was 13-1 and we outscored our opponents 81-6. We had 12 shut out games and four All-Conference players. We brought home two trophies for Gould, successfully defending both of last year's titles. And, for the first time in the history of Gould, the women's soccer team competed in the NEPSAC tournament!

Many thanks to our devoted fans that planned great half time shows! And we can't forget the parents who kept us so well fed!

Coach Head - You pushed us to see how far we would go, both mentally and physically, thank you for the support. Coach Coulombe - Thank you for being dedicated, light-hearted, and a great goalie coach, Natalie and Adora couldn't have had a better teacher! Betsy Capone - Our little fairy! (Shoot, Betsy! Shoot!) Kyle Pribish - You made soccer look instinctual. You're one tough cookie! Emily Parsons - Your dedication and support helped our attitudes. Jackie Paaso - You can boot the ball than any football player, look out colleges! Juliana Montgomery - Your effort helped motivate the team - especially when you yelled Nads half-way through the game! Meghan Holtham - You faced every opponent with confidence and that great smile! Courtney Amadon - You're darn good at dodging those corner flags! Kate Warner - You held our team together with your knowledge of the game and positive attitude. Ellie Scribner - We missed you this year, we hand over the captainship to you! Katie Davisson - You gave every game everything you had, thanks for being aggressive. Emily Bearse - Your hard work and ambition did not go unnoticed, thank you. Martha Gray - You got spunk, keep up the hard work (for another three years). Adora Burke - Despite your pains you stayed strong, thanks for all your hard work. Sarah Felton - We enjoyed your company, good luck next year! Ally Goddard - Your presence and determination was appreciated. Tracy Benoit - Tiny but mighty. Thanks for bearing the cold for us! Nina Harvey - Your dedication and support were astounding. You were a wonderful addition to our team!

*Special team note:

Many thanks to our wonderful Captains Laura Jenks and Natalie Rodenberg who propelled us through such a wonderful season. They worked hard every day and always kept the team laughing! Their support and dedication is what brought us together and made us so successful. Thank you both!!!!

Junior Varsity Field Hockey

J.V. Field Hockey was unstoppable this year. Armed with a core of returning players and new talents, the season culminated into an exciting year of play and improvement. Through out the season we showed excellent effort. Our already solid team of players grew even stronger as their skills and tactical understanding of the game improved. With raw talent and hard work we went undefeated in MAISAD.

Cross Country Running

Cross Country Running really had a tremendous season this fall with David Chamberlain and Patrick Cote as the coaches. The major achievement for this season was when the team won third for boys at the MASAID Championships. Our number one runner was Evan Daigneault. He won fourth at the MASAID Championships and also won the All Conference Award. Erika Hoddinott also won twelfth at the MASAID's. There was strong season performance from Jed Beach, "Tiger" Ricker, Tim Hall, Bob Bruce, Ronan Donovan and Patty Tumenas. Strong senior leadership was also exhibited from Jed and Tiger. The most improved runners this year were Ryan Linn and Elizabeth Baribeau. Overall we had a fun season and everyone worked hard. I believe that by the end of the season, the athletes were beginning to understand training as a life-style.

Men's Varsity Soccer

The varsity soccer team had a wonderful season. This young team improved as the season wore on, even though the outcomes at the different competitions were not always reflective of the team's success. The level of intensity of the practice sessions was raised, and the players were asked to push themselves each day. Practices were designed to improve each player's ability with the ball, decision making process, and, therefore, team cohesion and performance. The team finished the season with 6 wins, 6 losses and 1 tie. The team played very well in the tournament against Hebron Academy. Josh Gray earned the Most Improved Award for his tremendous work ethic, his contributions in practice and games, and his ability to apply what he learns in practice to game situations. Patrick Donovan led the team as captain and earned the Sportsmanship Award. His presence was felt each day, and his numerous contributions as a player and leader allowed the team to find success this year. Eric Hanian earned a MAISAD all-conference award for his strong performance in goal all year long. He often made the spectacular save to ensure a victory or allow the team to stay in the match. Kent Harrison earned a MAISAD all-conference award and represented the MAISAD league at the NEPSAC SENIOR ALL-STAR GAME. His ability as player, composure on the ball and decision-making skills on the field allowed him to set the tempo for our team. Kent allowed us to control possession of the ball and created several good scoring chances. Each player contributed to the best of their ability, and improved through their own hard work. Eric Cheney helped captain the team this year, and several young players earned valuable experience that will enable the program to continue to improve over the next couple of years.

Mountain Biking

The Gould Academy Mountain Bike team had an excellent season. The team competed in five races, repaired 17 bikes as a community service project, and constructed a maze of technical single track in order to host a mountain bike race at Gould. The racing field was supported by veteran team members and new recruits. "Fast Man" Paaso, unfortunately, spent a good deal of the season recovering from an accident in July, but Varsity team members Jack, Forrest, Barrett, Tim, and Orlin worked hard to keep the team's point up. New team members, Larkin, Junior, and Eddie captured their share of points at the JV races. Notably, Larkin's speed at the start of the line at the Titcomb race left the officials in awe. Larkin took off like a bullet, in the wrong direction, with 30 riders behind him. The season wrapped up quickly, and we look forward to next fall.

Men's Junior Varsity Soccer

Following a roller coaster regular season which saw the JV "A" team post wins over Hyde School, Kents Hill (twice), and Waynflete the "A's" saved their best soccer for the MAISAD playoffs. Trailing CVA 0-2 late in the semifinals with Jason Park scoring two goals in the last ten minutes to send the game into overtime. Following two scoreless overtime periods Gould coolly eliminated the number 1 seeded CVA team by converting 3 of the first 4 penalty kicks in the penalty kick shootout, while goal keeper Carter Fort held CVA scoreless. Gould then traveled to Hyde School where they again scored two late goals, including a near game winner by In Jae Kim, extending the eventual champions into overtime. The Huskies luck ran out with 1 minutes 23 seconds left in the second overtime, bringing to a close an exciting season. Senior goal-keeper Cater Fort was awarded the JV "A" Coach's Award at the Fall Sports Banquet for his positive attitude and perseverance throughout the year. Other seniors contributed greatly to the team's success as Rex Kin, Jason Park, and Geoff Hayward were strong in attack, Tyler Katzenberg anchored the midfield and Mike Lee was a stalwart on defense. Senior Josh Ferguson's season was cut short just as he was hitting his form. With nine freshmen and a sophomore to complement Juniors Tristan Fischer, Will Schmitt, Greg Bryant, and Marcus Ng, the future looks bright for Gould Soccer.

Women's Junior Varsity Soccer

The J.V. Women's Soccer team has done it again – MAISAD CHAMPS!!! After a great season captained by Ally Goddard, Sarah Felton, Reid Bullens-Crew, losing only two games (both to Hebron), we entered the championships as the second seed. After beating Hyde, we traveled to Hebron and faced our fiercest foe. At the end of regulation time, we had a tie (1-1). Two seemingly endless sudden death overtimes later and still we had a tie. Both Elizabeth Reed and Sam Olney saved the day. Elizabeth was the only player from either team to score a goal, and Sam got her hands on the three shots that didn't go wide. It was a tremendous victory and an unforgettable season!! Thanks to every one for the sacrifices made. Goodbye to our seniors, Reid and Alex. Special Thanks to Jenny's mom for the great socks!

Golf

The Golf team had a tremendous season this year, with Matt Lewis as the team captain and Gareth Kucinkas as the coach. Even though we finished the year with a four to five losses to wins record, I still feel like the team came out on top. The highlight of the season was when the team competed in the first MASAID Golf championship and finished second. The whole team did a great job showing up and working hard in practices, and I think that everyone had just as fun as I did. Last, we would like to thank the Bethel Inn and Country Club for providing us the opportunity to use their course.

Reachout

Reachout has had another very good year for participation and fundraising. Several new members added their energy and ideas. We raised several hundred dollars for the UNICEF and the American Red Cross. The book sale earned enough money to allow us to send donations to many causes such as the American Cancer Society and Habitat for Humanity. We continue to sponsor three children through Children International. This year we raised money for the Rotaplast by selling Carnations and baked goods. Reachout always participated in the annual Walk America campaign in April. We also sold stuffed animals to raise money for the March of Dimes. The year ended with a sale of ice cream in bowls made by the pottery class.

Blue Key

Blue Key is a student organization that assists the Admissions Office. Their most visible contribution is touring prospective families around our campus. They will also contribute by calling prospective students and bring them to class. This year we had 60 student volunteers who gave over 300 tours! We have been fortunate to have many seniors that have volunteered their services for several years while here. Special thanks and appreciation to the following seniors: Jed Beach, Jon Gould, Brent Grygiel, Matt Lewis, Sarah Marshall, Emily Parsons, Sarah Rackliffe, Mike Ricker, Lydia Mills, Adrien Smith, Orlin Watson, and Chelsey Bartlett. Chuck Butler was generous to volunteer for his one year as a senior here at Gould.

Our Blue Key Guides to an exceptional job and always get compliments on the quality of their tours and their welcoming personalities. The Admissions Office would like to express our thanks and appreciation to all our guides. We are looking forward to our returning underclassmen.

Gold Key

The Offices of Development and Alumni/ae Relations extend appreciation to the following students for their volunteer efforts during the 1999-2000 school year. Thanks to their support, more than 400 alumni/ae guests enjoyed visits to the Gould Academy campus. Students volunteered to wait on tables during Alumni/ae weekend, serve ice-cream cones for alumni/ae families, coordinate activities for alumni/ae children, video tape alumni/ae events, and assist elderly alumni/ae on their travels across campus. Students also volunteered throughout the year to help send mailings to alumni/ae and friends of Gould Academy, and many of these students participated in the Student Calling Program making calls to Gould alumni/ae and friends in support of the Annual Fund. Thank you Gold Key volunteers!

National Honor Society

With limited picture taking days in the state of Maine, and even more limited technological resources, the group of dedicated people who publish the Yearbook deserve all the praise we can possibly award them. Since we don't make morning announcements about our weekly progress, (it would come as a shock to some to hear, "Varsity Yearbook stepped up to a big challenge yesterday and finished all the seniors pages") this group of people go almost wholly unrecognized in their desire to produce a good record of the year. This year's team was brilliant and should be quite proud of the work they see before them. Thank you to all other people who submitted pictures, wrote text, and patiently showed up for pictures. We could not do it without you!

Team Yearbook

Canoe Building

The 1999-2000 Varsity AP Canoe Building Team has another winning season. Our numbers grew from three to five this year. The team consisted of senior captains, Molly Gray and Matt Linn, juniors Chase Martin and Andrew Gleason, and sophomore Josh Lemay. We were lead by our wise and compentant guides, Mr. Shifrin and Mr. McGuire. This was certainly a building year for the crew and we hope to have several returning players next year. Although we did not complete the canoe, our progress this year vastly surpassed last year's and we hope to improve our time even more next year. Other highlights of the year included the snowshoe expedition. Many thanks to our coaches for their understanding and patience. We got the spirit ...

Italia!

Well, needless to say the Italy group had many interesting adventures and encounters. From ancient Greek Temples to the Colloseum; from the Spanish Steps to Pompeii; we saw it all. Along the way we spent two crazy nights in Sorrento, played with the dogs in Pompeii, ate cheese for dinner, and played baseball at the beach. We saw entirely too much of Sasquatch and Shorty, and danced with a glittered Doc O in the discos of Sicily. We made "friends" with our bus driver Nino and tour guide Tony who "protected" the ladies from skeezy Italian guys. We learned to look out for men pointing at the ground, sour stolen oranges, and Paula. ¡Tutto bello, bello, bello! ¡Va bene! Catania, Catania, Catania!

F r a n c e T r i p

"Waky Waky!" The voice of our always British and hopelessly hilarious tour guide Tom Power would wake us up every morning, some days significantly easier than others. The trip to France was an experience in cultural immersion. Not just the French culture either, as it was often harder to understand what the Texans we traveled with were trying to say than it was to translate the French (although Geoff and Tyler seemed to get that down pat soon enough, while Chris was definitely working on it, or working it, whatever). Yet, once all of this was taken care of and a fair amount of biscuits eaten, we were ready to start getting down to business and see some castles and churches. Not crazy Frenchies on St. Patty's Day in Tours, nor oblivious-to-the-world sheep at Mont St. Michel, nor silly rollerbladers in Paris, nor even Gracie could stop us now: we were on our way to discovering just how small the Mona Lisa actually is. "Ou est le metro?", Chase would ask. And, while it may have taken some time to figure out, we eventually found it (although Sarah, Elizabeth, and Chelsea would be the only ones, apparently, who knew how to use it). Yet without Abbey's incredible sense of direction we might not have ever gotten that far. Peter? Ben? You went where?

Q: Which bridge am I supposed to make the wish under?

A: Your wish for a more functional brain has been DENIED!

Ski Patrol

Gould Academy/Sunday River Ski Patrol had another great season, and many patrollers have said how far the program has come. We began the year with two jacketed patrollers and by just after Christmas Break had already jacketed three more. Jon Gould was the first, completing all or the necessary steps by early December, while Elizabeth Burton and Brad Cunningham finished up in late January to Mid February. Over the season we worked steadily with Alex Strong and Adrien Smith to train the remaining candidates, hopefully getting them through the intense process of medical and toboggan skills. The Candidates of this year will be next years jacketed patrollers, following in our footsteps as we did with Sarah Crocker and Desiré Plata.

Sunday River will always be a home to us, a place to keep in touch as we all head our separate ways.

Skateboarding

Skateboarding pushes to redefine the "Board" in boarding school. While building a half-pipe to go along with the rest of the Gould Academy skatepark, Andre's runs got longer and longer, Jeremy's aggression amazed, Dustin slid through it all, Jason dropped in to the point where he didn't fall even when he thought he should, Alex dropped in, turned and sometimes didn't burn, Dan got the call from baseball, Aidan proved lax more violent than skate reality, and yes, Stu, you must skate, again and again.

The Barn

Varsity barn was led this year by senior captain Nate "manure chucker" Fisher. Nate provided solid work from the bed of the pickup and perfected his over the shoulder toss. The team will miss Nate next year and we wish him luck on the UVM Varsity Riding Around in Trucks for Coffee Team next fall. Future farmers Katie "live to hammer" McCann and Josh "goat milker" Liebowitz provided the additional boost the team needed this spring. These two rookies grew some strong onion seedlings, excelled at building compost piles that HEAT UP, and started a raised flower bed for future teams. Josh even rallied some city types to stick their hand right in up to the elbow to experience well-made rot. Coach Janicki hopes these two promising farmers will return for another season. The team would like to thank Duke and Jake for all the #%!?. We would also like to thank our corporate sponsors Carhart, Dickies, and Blue Seal. Remember these words. If it smells like #%!?. And feels like #%!?. And tastes like #%!?. You can spread it.

Well Baker Dude, Josh, Geoff, and I leave you, but as promised, there is still Baker Material left for the years to come. Anna made it to 75% of the assemblies. Tyler was Tyler. Meg always gave a smile, Rory delighted us with his presence and comments, and Chuck just kinda hung out, but he's a day student, that's what they do. Josh took up three seats, and Geoff's humour was a great addition to the clan, too bad it was only for one year. Myself being the only Baker Veteran, sat in my flip-flops, and listened to your wise advice. Until we all meet again, it's been fun. Oh yeah, I think we made it to Tut's once, not bad. Brad the assembly is not that bad, and you will survive going to at LEAST one advisee function. Jason wake up earlier or fix your watch 'cause the assemblies don't start at 7:55. As for Mini-Me (Baby Benjamin) you have a grand total of 125 minors for missing assemblies, and 23 Majors for sleeping in class, also you have to stop distracting people in afternoon study hall.

Do you think that the Manning's knew we were on their car?

We were a group with many backgrounds, some good and some bad. I guess that is all right. We have kept a momentum throughout the year; a momentum that was the glue of the group, from vegetarian meals in Ms. Evans' apartment to one-third of the group at advisee dishes. We applaud ourselves for keeping the river current flowing, a flow that is essential to Gould's existence. We will eventually break off into our own worlds, which we will call reality. We will embrace this with open arms.

As the days get shorter and Corporate America gets bigger, we will say that it is for the best. "Why?" you ask. Because we say things like that.

Junior Four Point

Every winter the junior class heads out into the woods of Maine for eight long days and seven cold nights to experience nature in its purest form. When entering the field house on the morning of our departure no one knew what to expect. Questions from how do I put on my snowshoe, to where is the toilet paper ran rampant through our heads. Though there was one question that had no answer. What will I take away from this trip? In this question lies the true meaning of junior four point and inside of us lies the true answer. At times we all believed that it would never end but we toughed it out and returned to Gould with nothing less than an overwhelming sense of accomplishment.

Hungary 2000

What a time we had! Who can believe that in those twelve short days we experienced all that we did? Not only were we lucky enough to see the actual Hungarian Crown on display at Parliament but we visited three baths, ate a "renaissance" meal, explored a crypt, rode donkeys at the puszta, and appreciated the numerous paintings by El Greco at the art museum. Before we left, Mr. Baker laid down two challenges. The first was to get the Gould chair all the way to the Varga Katalin Gymnasium in one piece (which we did) and the second was to avoid fast food of any kind (which we did not). Regardless of what we ate, Hungary and its generous culture proved to be the perfect backdrop for a meaningful bonding experience. We will never forget Martha's appreciation for big beautiful faces, all the small cars, "Yeah Dan," and our insistence that everything happen, "Right now!"

Men's Varsity

Women's Varsity Basketball

This year we continued to rebuild the Women's Basketball program. Although we did not win any games, each player made tremendous personal improvements. We discovered that the difference between winning and losing was our lack of intensity in the third quarter. As the girls became more experienced and accustomed to playing with each other, they came together and played as a team. The overall team spirit may best be described by the post-game comment of a Waynflete player who said, "My team has so much respect and admiration for the Gould girls who never quit and play their hearts out until the last second has passed." In spite of some frustrating times we still managed to have fun.

Men's Varsity Basketball

The GA Boys Basketball capped a great year by returning to the preliminary round of the Western Maine Class D playoffs for the second consecutive year. Highlights of our year included outstanding road victories over Kent's Hill, Waynelete and Elan. We finished the year with an identical 7-9 record as last year. Since all of our players are returning, we are looking forward to being a real force in the Class D playoffs in the upcoming season. Chris Liberti won the Most Improved award this season and Josh Gray won the Sportsmanship Award for his outstanding work ethic and attitude. Josh Gray and Marcus Davey were elected co-captains for next year.

Freestyle Ski Team

This year the freestyle team learned many things: the ancient art of ***-kickin' (special help from "The Mystery of Chess-Boxing") and the modern art of wuhrkin' it, also known as freestyle skiing (special help from Coaches Yingling, Bean, and Paaso). We learned that the spirit of freestyle is not about winning or losing, but how many times you get up after you wreck yourself.

Our team:

Rory "Did I mention I'm good?" Will, Sam "It's warmer in Colorado" Prudden, James "I got mono - but skiing is cool" Baxendale, Kian "This is FUN!" Merchant-Borna, Lauren "Gymnast Girl" Jacobs, Kevin "Mr. Improvement" Hanian, Mark "I could beat everybody up" Paaso, Konrad, The BIG German" Rotthege, Barret "Wanna wrestle?" Stowell, and Dylan "Being smooth is not a skill, it's an art" Hood

The senior (who led the team in all our hijinks and zany adventures):

Junior "I thought a 720 was easier then a 360" Powers, Jeremy "Hit Band! Baht! Baaht!" Cowin, Geoff "Can I just compete in Lake Placid?" Hayward, Eric "Hold on, hold on!" Hanian, Marty "Just one more run!" Odlin, and Jackie "I did beat everybody up" Paaso Special Thanks to: The Powers family, the Hayward Family, the Stowell Family, the Events Department at Sunday River, Pete Girard, Sho "Have an Ogasaka T-shirt!" Shimoda and Mother Nature for letting us have an OK winter.

GSR Alpine Program

The 1999-2000 GSR program began in August with approximately 20 athletes traveling to Mt. Hood for a two-week training camp. This session focused on basic fundamentals and provided the athletes the opportunity to product test short slalom skis from various companies. The men and women's team learned to work together, whether it was side by side physical training or supporting one another as they navigated the mental challenges of a rigorous program. Some athletes chose to stick with pre-season training when school began in September and others hit the soccer fields. They all re-grouped at Thanksgiving for a camp and awaited snow. The competitive season began in earnest after the Christmas camp.

For the 3rd consecutive year in a row, the Gould men and women alpine and Nordic racers and ski jumpers brought home the NEPSAC title. As well, this was the first year in many that we could boast of having the Skimeister Champion. Late in the season Patrick Donovan began to get a few lessons from the Nordic racers, and he finished strongly in all alpine, Nordic, and jumping events. As well, the men and women racers earned the title of MAISAD champions. The JO events saw many Gould competitors at the J1, J2, and J3 levels. The J3's had outstanding Super G performance at Mt. Cranmore, and the J1 and 2's, especially Megan Hoyt and Jori Curry, saw top 15 results.

Over March vacation 30 athletes traveled to GSR's "home away from home" Megeve, France. The experience the athletes had was top notch. They skied at Chevel, Lessaisies, la Clavza, Chamonix, and Flaine. All J1 and J2 racers participated in their first FIS races in Italy. They all did exceptionally well for their first time at this high level. Notably, Andre Vandebuckle had top 20 performances at these races. The GSR program concluded with JP Chatellard, Ingomar Stemark's coach, talking to the athletes. His inspirational and informative discussion encouraged the athletes to pursue their goals with a great resolve.

Nordic Combined

The cross country ski team enjoyed another successful season. Leading the group was Justin Hauteniemi who peaked at the Prep School Championships where he won the individual race and had the fastest relay time of the day. Ronan Donovan chased his teammate around the course for second place. Forest Fyrburg, Evan Daigneault, and 2000 New England Skimiester Patrick Donovan finished well enough to give Gould the team victory in the morning's individual race. The team of Hauteniemi, Ronan Donovan, Daigneault, and Fyrburg finished second in the afternoon's relay. Ronan and Justin went on to help the Maine team win their first New England High School team championship. On the girl's side, Patty Tumenas, Betsy Capone, Caitlin Kennett, and Erin Choromanski emerged from a sickness and injury plagued season to ski well at the New England Prep School Championships.

A special hats off to the dedicated Nordic Jumping team who took a clean sweep at the MAISAD final on the Gould hill. A special thanks to Mr. Wight and Mr. McGuire, who maintain the hill.

All in all winter was too short and there wasn't enough snow this year but we all managed to have fun. The team competed in the Maine series a new series to USASA this year.

Sundayriver hosted most of the local events we attended. We also took road trips to Stratton Mountain, Sugarloaf, Okemo, and Waterville Valley for other competitions.

The season went really well and we ended with Thomas, Tim, Flint, Lydia, Megan, Aidan, & Cassie, all attending the 2000 USASA nationals! Strong finishes by the Maine Team!

Women's Varsity Tennis

The Gould Academy Womens Tennis Team ended the season with their best record in many years. The team won matches against Hebron, and Kents Hill. Every match was quite close with different team members contributing each and every week to the individual match victories. Team members were Caitlin McLaughlin, Sarah Zvonkovic, Robin Chace, Ali McClure, Meghan McClure, Janet Park, Katherine Nichols, Christy Kim, and Alex Strong. The winner this year of the sportsmanship award was Christy Kim for her dedication to the team. The Most Improved award was given to Katherine Nichols.

Men's Varsity Tennis

This season the Men's Tennis team had wonderful potential and, at times, a sense of teamwork. (Please keep in mind that being a tennis player is hard at Gould Academy, the fans are crazy and the woman swarm.) Tennis to us is a state of mind, one that requires a deep search within oneself and a heck of a serve – something that Will lacked. We had a pleasurable season finishing 3-5. Matt "I-like-Molly" Linn had a tough season at #1, Chuck "Why-am-I-still-talking" Butler was 4-3 going into the tournament and had an easy path to the semis but couldn't beat the worst player during the first round. Will "The Thrill" Schmitt was undefeated at #3 for the Huskies, he was Super ... MmmmKay. His tournament was top notch as he defeated the unsuspecting player from Hyde.

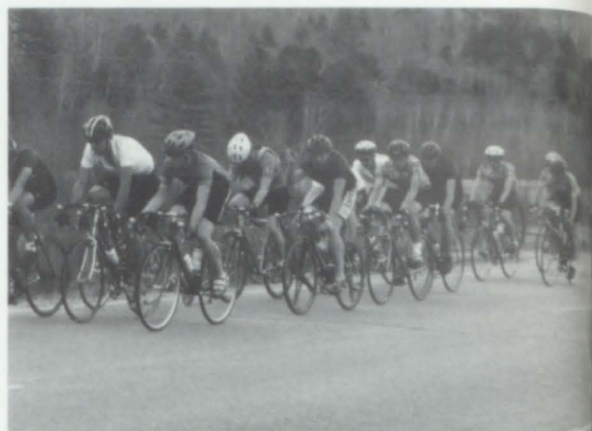

Doubles is another story, to put it politely, no one knows why they even play ... jk. Tyler "The Cat" Katzenberg and Ben "The Phat" Godsoe were butter at #1 doubles but couldn't wake up in time to take the tournament. Kevin "Mr." Wright and Ian "The Basement" Beeuwkes were a good team but struggled in the tourney.

PS – Thanks Coach, you can deny it but you had a great time.

Cycling

The cycling team had a tremendous season. At the season opening Holderness Road Race, we performed well, placing Barrett Stowell and Thomson Riley in the top ten. Jackie Paaso and Meghan Hoyt were also in the top ten. This was followed by a strong showing at our home race, where we finished first in the men's A race. In that race Thomson Riley was first and Justin Hautiniemi placed second. Jackie Paaso and Meghan Hoyt also had strong finishes. At the Lakes Region Championships, Meghan Hoyt shocked the field by placing sixth in her first Championship event. The boys dominated the men's A race, placing Thomson second, Tim List third, and Justin fifth. These excellent performances captured the league Championship title for the boys.

Women's Varsity Lacrosse

The Women's Varsity Lacrosse team had yet another outstanding season (11-2-1), winning both the leagues and the tournament for the second straight year. The team was undefeated in the league, the closest game being 5 points. This year the team had 11 seniors and was led by captains Emily Parsons, Adrien Smith, and Laura Jenks. Laura was also the leading scorer with 59 goals and 25 assists. Other seniors on the team were: Sarah Marshall, Molly Gray, Patty Tumenas, Betsy Capone, Natalie Rodenberg, Chelsey Bartlett, Sarah Rackliffe, and Kyle Pribish. ALL-STARS were Adrien Smith, Kyle Pribish, Laura Jenks, and Sarah Rackliffe. Laura and Sarah were also ALL NEW ENGLAND ALL STARS.

The most improved player went to defensive player Emily Bearse. The sportsmanship award was given to Laura Jenks.

Women's JV Lacrosse

The JV Women's Lacrosse team finished their season with a record of 2-4-2. Most members of the team had never played before and the improvement throughout the season was significant. Ashley H. and Danielle R. were both spectacular in the goal and provided the anchor to an already strong defense. Martha Gray, Ally Goddard, and Chelsea Marshall were top goal scorers for the attack. All contributed to the fun of learning a new sport!

Men's JV Lacrosse

The J.V. lacrosse team had a solid season, and finished the season with three wins. The energy and enthusiasm displayed by everyone made practices both fun and productive. Offensively, the team was lead by Chuck Hoyt (recipient of this year's coaches award), Brad Lannon, Andy Mention, Greg Perchik and Greg Bryant on attack. We had three lines of middies who ran tirelessly up and down the field, playing both excellent defense and providing offensive support. Each player was able to contribute positively to the team in some way. Ben Morrill, Leo Menard, Spencer Cowin, Kian Merchant, Sam Oyer, Peter McGuire, Ethan Elliot-Williams, Jason Johnson, Larkin Bulger and Jack

Tracy all became much better lacrosse players by the end of the season. We were led defensively by Mike Lee, who was not only ferocious on ground balls and hitting, but who scored his first career goal against a tough Proctor team. Senior Brad Higginbotham improved tremendously during the season and will be missed next year. However some of the best defensemen in the league return in Corey Wood and Daniel Bodenfors. First year goalie John Perrone was outstanding in net, and his enthusiasm for the sport and exponential improvement promises big things for the future. Coaches Smith and Beams are already looking forward to next year.

Men's Varsity Lacrosse

As the snow melted and the fields cleared ahead of schedule, hopes ran high for a fast start to the first lacrosse campaign of the new millennium. With ten returning letterman, and the addition of several newcomers, the outlook was promising, until the rains came and the tide began to rise over the lower fields. In spite of the obstacles, the Huskies pitched the clam forks and picked up their sticks for an early season victory over a strong Freeport team, and a close loss to the tough Tiltonians of New Hampshire. The season had stops and starts as games were canceled due to circumstances beyond control; however, the team developed well over time and averaged 7 goals per game to the opponents 8. An overtime loss, as well as an overtime tie with Hebron, kept the record at 3-5-1, and a third place finish in MAISAD play. The one-goal games with Kent's Hill indicate how evenly the league was matched. The team scoring was lead by Angus Graham who tallied thirty points of the season. Banker Award Winner, Orlin Watson and Burt Boyer each notched eighteen; Tristan Fischer connected for fifteen and Dylan Hood added eight. Jack Henderson-Adams, Bob Bruce and Eddie Keiser all connected for one goal each. The defensive side of the field had moments of brilliance as Gus Levy averaged close to eleven saves per game. Gus was presented with the team's Most Improved Player Award. Captain Andrew Drummond played tenacious defense, and he earned the Sportsmanship Award. Ronan Donavan, Pete Waitkun, Adam Stout, and Evan Daigneault also played well and added depth, along with, Josh Lemay, Brent Grygiel and Sean Duncan. The 2001 odyssey is yet to unfold, but with fourteen returning players in the wings, the MAISAD crown may well be within reach.

Varsity Baseball

The baseball season began on a very discouraging note, as Co-Captain Eric Hanian broke his collarbone the week before students returned from spring break. Both Eric and the team recovered, as the season went on. We found our first dry field at Tilton and enjoyed being on grass losing 8-7 despite a three run homerun and 5 RBI'S by CoCaptain Patrick Donovan. Other highlights of our 6-6 campaign were; a 9-7 victory over cross town rival Telstar, a 3-2 come from behind victory over Del Norwood, Bob Croteau, Dr. Charles Smith, Chris Brooks, Justin Hall, Ben Drummond and Faculty in the Alumni Game, leading the powerful Bridgton Academy Prepsters 7-1 and our comeback in the MAISAD Playoffs against eventual champion Hebron Academy. Behind 5-0 we tied the game in the bottom of the sixth, 5-5. In the eighth, two runs for Hebron on a slow roller by the mound were enough for the championship, as we shutout Kents Hill 15-0 to earn second place.

JV Baseball

JV Baseball finished a very successful season. The team made great improvements, especially in its defensive play, over the course of the season. Mitsu Narita was our dependable starting pitcher, who pitched in just about every game we played this season. Offensively, the team was led by shortstop slugger Chris Gould, Dan Tutor, Jason Park, and lead-off man Marcus Ng. Defensively, our infield played as well as any we faced all year. Catcher Todd Chasteen, 1B Chris Liberti, 2Bs Dai Kammamota and Mike Omer-Man, SS Chris Gould, and 3B Adam Dumont anchored the infield. Our outfield improved dramatically over the course of the season. Leading outfielders were Tutor, Park, Elliot-Williams, Baird, and BBQ.

Men's JV Tennis

J.V. Tennis had a successful season, finishing up with a 3-2 record. Highlights of the year included dominating victories over Hebron Academy and North Yarmouth Academy. The team had great depth with eleven players playing at different positions over the season. With several returning players, the team is looking forward to another successful season next year.

Softball: Undefeated!

It all started on this day back in Aril when we didn't even have enough people to make up an infield – two months later women's varsity softball became league and MAISAD champions! We were an intimate bunch with two phenominal pitchers, a few never evers that turned into stellar players, a hard core catcher, an awesome girl from Bermuda, one funny girl from Korea, an energetic first basewoman, an intense third basewoman – a couple of girls that would help us whenever we needed some extra players and a coach that had just as much energy as we did! We had one golden rule: nobody can get hurt – an undefeated season and three spectacular victories against HE-BRON!!!!!!!!

yeah girls – what's up – we had fun :)

Horseback Riding

Although we started with eight team members, injuries took their toll, so that in the end five riders actually competed. For the record, though, none of the injuries happened around the horses or while riding!! Anna Clark and Meg Hammond brought their horses with them again, and the results of last year's work were apparent as they began schooling for competition. Meg's new thoroughbred, Roxanne, is still shifting some gears as she changes from eventing to dressage, and Anna's Fjord pony, Jubilee Canada, has definitely figured out some important things about not having to go fast all the time – with Anna's help, of course. The other riders, Jessica Braun, Jennessa Fitzpatrick, and Josh Liebowitz, came with a variety of horse experience, each going on to make real progress. By the time of the two shows, at Esprit Equestrian Center and at Vienna Farm, these three were able to hold their own despite some jitters.

We have lots of good memories: the beautiful fall weather, the pleasure of going riding every day, the willing help Mrs. Baker gave us by doing some of the driving, the early morning van rides to shows (accompanied by great Gould lunches), and the wonderful instruction provided by DiAnne Ward at Deepwood Farm. We anticipate next season when we can do more trail riding, go to shows that are closer, and all ride at Training Level.
